DECHALA, THE DENIED ONE

For centuries the Denied One has wandered the Chaos Wastes, leaving a trail of pain and suffering in her wake. Some say she was granted great age by Slaanesh, others that she was once an elven princess. Whatever the truth, she is now twisted by the taint of Chaos. Her legs have become a lashing serpentine tail, her skin is white as ivory and many arms sprout from her body. You can include Dechala in your Chaos armies for only $10.49.

MOUNTED DAEMONETTE COMMAND

Servants of the Lord of Pleasure. Daemonettes are blessed with unearthly beauty, but are also terrifying. Mounted on Steeds of Slaanesh, they charge forward at the head of Slaaneshi hordes, the steeds' tongues lashing and their razor sharp claws slicing through opponents with ease. They are led by those seen as elite even among the daemonic warriors, spreading both pleasure and despair with their Rapturous Standards and Siren Flutes.

PLAGUEBEARER COMMAND

Foul and twisted, bloated by decay, the Plaguebearers of Nurgle amble forth spreading disease and corruption. Out in front, foul commanders lead them to the dull peals of the Gong of Despair, marching ever forward under the tattered Plague Banner to further shower all they survey with horrid pestilence.

The Gong of Despair creates a din so horrifying, it causes enemy units to re-roll their successful break tests, giving them another opportunity to run from combat.

This standard top is perfect for any Chaotic conversion you may have in mind. Who couldn't use a stick with a skull on either end to make things a bit more evil?

CYPHER
THE FALLEN ANGEL

Relentlessly pursued and mercilessly hunted by their former brethren, they are the Fallen, willing contributors to the legacy of heresy and betrayal that runs deep through the history of the Dark Angels. Of these accursed battle brothers one is most notorious, a mysterious figure known as Cypher. An expert gun-fighter, his very presence spreads animosity and discord through friend and foe alike. He carries at his side a strange blade which no one has ever seen him draw. If the Fallen are to be believed, this is the fabled Lion Sword which he intends to return to the Dark Angels, and thereby find redemption for all of the Fallen.

Spray Paints and Primers

Due to Federal regulations, no spray cans may be shipped using any form of Air carrier. We can only send spray cans using UPS GROUND service. This limits us to selling spray paints and primers to continental U.S. addresses only (NO P.O. Boxes).

Plastic Arms, Weapons and Shields

To allow you greater freedom to personalize your models and to provide a greater variety of poses we now include separate plastic arms, weapons and shields for many of our miniatures. The price of these models includes an appropriate number of plastic sprues. We will automatically supply the right sprues, as indicated in the Citadel Miniatures Annual, without any specific instructions. However, if you would like a different but similar sprue – a different arm or shield sprue, for instance, just let us know and we will make the substitution at no extra charge.

Slottabases

These are automatically supplied with the models you order. If for some reason you don't want the 'official' size of base, just let us know and again we will make the substitution at no extra charge.
